Walk lasted between 12:00 and 14:00. Tournament Park was closed.

We were missing a number of regulars; yet, we carried on. And we observed some interesting birds. We had a Hermit Thrush pop up right in front of our faces as we peered through the fence into Tournament Park. And we nabbed a Northern Flicker; always a treat. And we got 2 Red-crowned Parrots, a zero probability sighting. On the downside, we missed House Finch and Lesser Goldfinch, both 100% probability sightings. Didn't happen for us. I bet we get them next week; knock on wood.
