This was a great, record-setting walk. We beat the previous record for a week three by two species! It did not start that way or really feel that way until towards the end when I started to count the species. We had almost nothing at Arden Rd. But, little by little, thanks to the crack team of walkers, we kept adding species. And we had a nice returnee walker. Fiona Tindall, who last walked in 2010, returned to the fray. She now has 24 walks to her credit and I hope she comes back often. Welcome back, Fiona!
