Walk lasted between 12:00 and 14:01

We had a very good walk, getting 24 species when the prediction was 25.1. The highlight bird was the Snowy Egret in the pond in front of Ramo. It was the last bird sighting we had and brought us up to 24. We were a bit warbler poor, seeing only the yellow-rumped. But, otherwise, we did pretty well. Good walk!
