Walk lasted between 12:00 and 14:00

We got 1.1 more than the prediction and 5 more than the median, so it was a good walk. The record for the week was 35 and that seems difficult, to say the least. I would say the starlings and the swallows were the highlight birds since they were zero probability finds. But, even though coming in at only 12%, we did enjoy seeing a couple of Chipping Sparrows in front of Braun Gym. All in all, not bad.
