Walk lasted between 12:00 and 13:54

We had a new walker, Eric Warren, and that usually brings good luck. But it was hot and that drove the numbers down.

So, don't blame Eric. We observed only 18 species, 5.4 short of the prediction. I don't think we saw any new birds from last week, only fewer. So this walk is categorized as less than half-bad.
