Walk lasted between 12:00 and 14:02. Tournament Park was open.

We had a good walk. Hutton's Vireo was the bird of the day. We identified it first by sound, using the BirdNet app, and then got it in view. Nice. We had a hawk we couldn't identify at a distance but we knew it wasn't the Red-tailed that was already on the list, so I entered it as Hawk, sp. We missed the Bushtits at 88% probable, but we did get 4 zero-probable birds, including a Turkey Vulture and a Red-tailed Hawk. Overall, not half-bad.
