Walk lasted between 12:00 and 13:42.

It was a nice walk. We fell short of the prediction by 0.9 birds, so pretty close. We were two over the median and 5 under the record for the week. The lack of a Black Phoebe, a Lesser Goldfinch, and Band-tailed Pigeon held us back. Each was an 88% probable bird, but not there today. Hopefully, better luck to us next time.
