Walk lasted between 12:00 and 14:03

Wow, what a walk! We added a new bird for the Caltech list, a Red-breasted Nuthatch. We also got out first Yellow-rumped Warblers of the season, right on queue at week 40. And we saw three other first of the season birds: Yellow Warbler, Ruby-crowned Kinglet, and White-crowned Sparrow. Fall has arrived. Our count was 3 short of the record for the week, and 5 above the median and 2.3 above the prediction. Great walk all the way around.
