Walk lasted between 12:00 to 14:00. Tournament Park was still closed.

It was an interesting walk. The south athletic field produced again. We got Killdeer, American Pipits, and a Says' Phoebe there. And in front of Braun Gym, we got the two Savannah Sparrows. We added Hermit Thrush and Western Tanager over by the turtle ponds. Most of the yellow-rumps we saw were still in the trees just north of the south athletic field. The weather was a lot cooler than last week. All in all, not half-bad.
