Walk lasted between 12:00 and 13:45. Tournament Park was open.

We fell short of the median for the week by 3 species, but we had an interesting walk nonetheless. We were entertained by a Red-shouldered Hawk that flew in and perched right in front of us as we approached Wilson Ave. on our way of the parking lot of Tournament Park. A little disappointed with the lack of warblers but it was a pretty warm day. Maybe they'll show up on the next walk.
