Walk lasted between 12:00 and 13:56. Tournament Park was open.

We had a new walker, Ethan Lin, a freshman at Caltech. We haven't had many undergraduates on the walk and it was great to have Ethan join us. We bagged 20 species, which was 2 above the median but 2.6 short of the predicted number. We had a debate on the hawk sighting. It was sitting in a tree with its breast facing us and some thought it was a red-tailed and some went for red-shouldered. So, it went down as Hawk, species. We had a good assortment of warblers and enjoyed the waxwings and bluebirds. Good walk.
